News From Crystal Spring.

Crystal Spring, Oct. 19.—Miss Virginia Zeigler has gone to attend school in Orangeburg.

The cotton crop being short, the farmers are well up with their gathering and are planning to plant a large grain crop for 1916.

Mr. Conner Smoak went to Denmark on special business last Thursday.

Judging from the fine hogs grazing in the pindar fields, the farmers will be well supplied with bacon for 1916.

The folks are planning to celebrate Thanksgiving day at Crystal Spring. The public is invited to come and bring their turkeys.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Smoak went to Bamberg last Friday on business.

The patrons of Sassafras school have employed the services of Miss Sheba Goodwin, of Smoaks, as teacher, by private subscription. They are hopeful that the board of trustees of the district will appreciate the school and will contribute aid from the school funds of the district.

Mr. Thomas C. Padgett, of Charleston, and his beautiful bride spent a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Padgett. Mr. Padgett has been engaged in business in Charleston with the Consolidated Car company for several years. His bride was formerly Miss Katie Hurley, native of Tipperary, Ireland. She came to Charleston two years ago to visit a very wealthy aunt. Many congratulations to Mr.

Padgett for winning the heart of such a fine lady.

A reception was given at Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Padgett's home Thursday evening in honor of Mr. Thomas C. Padgett and bride. It was well attended and much enjoyed by all. Music was rendered by the elegant "Folk band," which consisted of Mr. G. W. Folk and his two sons and three daughters.

Miss Maggie Padgett took her cousin, Mr. Thomas C. Padgett and his bride to the home of Professor D. T. Smoak Thursday and spent a very pleasant day.

The old men, young men and boys assembled Friday evening at Crystal Spring and served an old time "chicken stew," each carried a chicken and a quart of rice and "stewed" in a forty gallon pot. Gee! What an eat! All enjoyed themselves fine but left for home "kinder" complainingly.

Mr. Conner Smoak called at the home of Mr. J. B. Padgett Saturday to see his old friend Mr. Thomas C. Padgett.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Padgett boarded the six o'clock train at Bamberg Saturday afternoon for Charleston, their future home.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. Frances Fletcher Jenkins, of Kline, announces the engagement of her daughter, Annye Maie, to Algeron Otis Sanders, of Ulmer, the wedding to take place in November.

Robert McElroy, of Greer, has been arrested charged with being an accessory to the death of Annie May Glenn, who committed suicide. The girl killed herself, she said, because her lover, who promised to marry her, left the city on the wedding day. She is said to have mentioned McElroy's name.

IN THE PALMETTO STATE

SOME OCCURRENCES OF VARIOUS KINDS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

State News Boiled Down for Quick Reading.—Paragraphs About Men and Happenings.

The Presbyterian synod of South Carolina convened in Rock Hill on Tuesday night for the annual session.

U. S. Senator E. D. Smith in an interview in Columbia Tuesday said that he believed that cotton would be bringing twenty cents a pound by January.

An inquest into the death of Sidney J. Cohen, the young newspaper reporter who was killed in the riot in Charleston Friday, was commenced on Tuesday.

Jack Salters, a short term convict on the Colleton county chain gang, was shot and killed by a guard, Wm. Zeigler, while Salters was advancing on H. C. Griffin, another guard, with a pickaxe, shooting, it is said, to protect the life of Griffin.

CARLISLE DEFEATED.

Porter Beats Game by Score of 47 to 0.

Carlisle was defeated in her first foot ball game of the season, Porter winning by a score of 47 to 0. The following write-up of the game is clipped from the News and Courier of Saturday:

The visitors played much better ball in the last half than in the first, although the score was a little larger. They seemed to have developed better tackling ability and their rushes at the line were better. However, they did not have a chance at getting through the first defence of the Porterites. To put it plainly, they were outclassed.

Simmons, at tackle; Hargreaves, at end; and Bird, at guard, did especially well.

The most sensational play of the game was pulled off in the last quarter, when DeLancy, playing quarter, tossed to Smith, who in turn aroplaned one to Fuller. The blond little end, with almost a clear field, went sixty-five yards before being downed. The play was a cleverly executed one.

Carlisle's Stars.

Capt. Lenoir, for Carlisle, at end, played well in spite of a bad boil on his face. Watson and Woods, in the back field, and Hough, at tackle, also starred for the visitors.

Scoring by the Preps started early. Allan was downed on Porter's 27 1-2 yard line on the kickoff. On the first play Higgins took twenty-two yards around right end. Brilliant runs by Higgins brought the ball to Carlisle's 13-yard line, when DeLancy ripped his way through for the first touchdown. Allan kicked goal.

Carlisle received, but after losing seven yards on three downs kicked to Porter's 25-yard line. DeLancy and Higgins, aided by Allan, carried the ball to the 10-yard line. A pretty forward pass, Smith to Hargreaves, scored touch-down No. 2. The kickoff failed.

When the teams lined up a purposely short kick of about twelve yards gave Porter the ball on Carlisle's 45-yard line when the Methodists fumbled. With thirteen yards to go the quarter ended. Resuming play DeLancy went for eight yards, Allan took three a. 1 Smith butted his way through centre for the third touch-down. Allan kicked goal.

Higgins Goes Over.

It was after Carlisle received the next kickoff that Lenoir got away for his 21-yard run. It was by far the best piece of offensive work of the visitors. Within one-quarter yard of making the next first down the ball went over. The half ended with the ball at about the middle of the field.

At the beginning of the third quarter Carlisle received but was forced to kick after unsuccessful attempts to gain. The Porter line was impenetrable. After DeLancy had gained one yard Higgins raced around end for twenty-one. DeLancy went for nine more, Smith gained two and the remaining seven yards was covered by Higgins. Allan kicked goal.

On the next kickoff, Woods made a twenty-yard return. Carlisle could not gain and kicked. Higgins ripped off seventeen yards and followed with seventeen more. Another first down was made and a forward pass, Smith to Berge, made another six points, Allan kicked goal.

Smith intercepted a forward pass. Fuller went around end for twenty-six yards. Porter failed to make first down and the ball went to Carlisle.

CRUSHED UNDER TRAIN.

Man Meets Instant and Horrible Death at Clover.

Yorkville, Oct. 17.—Both Jackson was drawn under the wheels of a passenger train at Clover yesterday morning while, it seems, he was attempting to swing on when the train was in motion, and killed. There was a circus billed to exhibit at Gastonia yesterday and the management of the Carolina and Northwestern railway advertised that it would operate an excursion train between Chester and Gastonia. After reaching Yorkville, owing to the fact that the five or six coaches making up the train were filled to overflowing, it was decided that it would not take on any more between here and Gastonia, and as a result it did not stop or slacken its speed at either Filbert or Clover, where there were possibly would-be passengers waiting.

As the train passed the station at Clover, Jackson, when he realized that it would not stop, it is said, undertook to "swing" the last coach, but missed his footing, was drawn under the rear wheels and his body was cut almost in two. The train crew knew nothing of the accident and the train did not stop. The man was instantly killed. The accident occurred at about 11 o'clock, and the body lay where the train left it until about 1 o'clock, when it was removed by instructions of the sheriff. No inquest was held.

Lutheran Missionary Society.

Quite an interesting programme was given by the Woman's Missionary society of the Ehrhardt Lutheran church on the evening of October 17th. The children had a great part in the exercises. They were well trained and are to be praised for the splendid part they took.

Special mention should be made of the "Banner Drill" and the "Candle Drill." The "Banner Drill" was rendered beautifully by ten girls, each one bearing a banner of a different color. Each banner had a cross with the motto: "By This Sign Conquer," on it. The "Candle Drill" was led by "Faith" bearing a lighted candle, followed by a number of "Graces." A number of heathen countries came forth and begged for light. By "Faith's" work light was given to all.

Candles were distributed to the congregation to show how the light of the gospel is spread from one person to another. One candle was first lit, then with the one others were lit until the entire church was filled with burning tapers. This shows how important it is to "Let your light so shine that others may see your good works."

The programme follows: Song: "Follow your Savior;" Scripture reading: Mark 16:9-16; Prayer: Rev. J. R. Smith, of the Baptist church; songs: "Work for Jesus each day;" song: "We are little soldiers;" "A little light," Marshall Copeland; "In the corners," Louise Copeland; Candle Drill, by the children; exercise: "Not one cent," by the children; Banner Drill, by ten girls; quartette: "I will be a light for Jesus;" offertory: "The Lord my Shepherd is;" benediction by the Rev. Mr. Guess, of the Methodist church.

lisle on its twenty-five yard line. Carlisle lost seven yards and the quarter was up. Allan intercepted a forward pass and Higgins went for Allen failed at goal.

The final touch-down was made after Fuller's great run for sixty-five yards, DeLancy going over. Allan kicked goal.

ONE IS KILLED, 5 INJURED

RIOT AT CHARLESTON ELECTION CANVASS.

Police Involved.—Sidney J. Cohen, Newspaper Reporter, Victim of Stray Shot.—Arrests Made.

Charleston, Oct. 16.—Sidney J. Cohen, a reporter for the Evening Post, was killed, and William E. Wingate, captain of the city chain gang; Harry L. Wilenski, city meter inspector; W. A. Turner and Jeremiah O'Brien, a member of the committee, were wounded during a fusillade of pistol shots in the committee room at the southwest corner of King and George streets just as the city Democratic executive committee was about to be called to order yesterday at noon for the purpose of canvassing the returns and declaring the nominee of the municipal election held Tuesday.

The committee room was crowded. City Chairman Joseph A. Black called on the police to clear the room of all except the members of the executive committee. It was just about this time that the trouble broke. As to just how it started all sorts of rumors have been circulated. The confusion appears to have begun when the room was being cleared of outsiders. One or more altercations were begun, it is stated, and suddenly a pistol shot rang out, followed closely by others, twelve shots being accounted for. A crowd in an ante-room tried to gain admittance, while persons in the room sought safety. Several men went out of windows. Mr. Cohen was about to pass through a window when he was mortally wounded in the side. Wild confusion reigned for some minutes.

With the disorder at its height and the crowd in the street steadily increasing, some person turned in the fire alarm and engines responded to the box at King and George streets.

Receiving a hurry call, Sheriff J. Elmore Martin and a body of deputies hurried in automobiles from the county court house to the scene of the disorders.

The militia and deputies were being held in readiness under orders from Governor Manning because of representations to him that various threats of violence against the committee, and especially against Chairman Black, had been reported.

The Washington Light Infantry, under Capt. Harry O. Withington, with fixed bayonets, marched from its armory up King street, the crowd getting out of its way.

About twenty minutes after the first shot Mayor Grace reached the scene.

Meanwhile, two ballot boxes and two club roff books are known to have been thrown out of windows into the street, these later being reported by the police as recovered.

Part of Police in Fatal Melee.

Charleston, Oct. 16.—Stories of eye-witnesses of the shooting in the executive committee room which eventuated in the killing of Sidney J. Cohen and the wounding of four other men agree that there was wild disorder and that the police of Charleston took part in it. Shots were fired, clubs used, citizens hustled and beaten, according to these accounts.

Chief Cantwell, of the Charleston police force, is said to have wielded his pistol in the fracas. J. J. Healy, a deputy sheriff, said: "Chief Cantwell fired a shot at Henry Brown while several men were holding Brown. Some one, I think Mr. Robson, grabbed Chief Cantwell's hand with the pistol in it and begged him not to shoot."

J. W. Robson, an East Bay merchant, said: "I saw with my own eyes several persons rush at a man whom I did not know and force him back, about half-sitting, at the middle window on the east side of the building. Chief Cantwell came up and deliberately fired with his pistol at his head. I caught his arm and said, 'Don't do that! Don't do that!'" Mr. Robson is a member of the committee. He was present at the meeting from the start and did not leave the room until all was over. Conrad Stender says he saw one man in a window on the east side of the room, with three or four men crowding him. "While this was going on, I saw Chief Cantwell come up with his pistol in his hand and fire a shot at this man's head. In the confusion I did not recognize the man. I saw no pistol in his hand." Nath. B. Barnwell, a member of the

LEVER LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Federal Judge Declares Cotton Futures Act Started Out Wrong.

New York, Oct. 13.—Federal Judge Hough today handed down a decision declaring unconstitutional the law known as the Cotton Futures Act. He rendered judgment in favor of Daniel T. Hubbard and others in a suit to recover damages for assessment made and collected by the collector of internal revenue.

Judge Hough in a lengthy opinion said the Cotton Futures Act was technically unconstitutional because the law originated in the senate instead of in the house of representatives. "This is one of the legislative projects which to be a law must originate in the house of representatives," said Judge Hough.

"The constitution of the United States provides that all revenue bills shall originate in the lower house. This bill, I find, was introduced in the senate, and as it is a bill for raising revenue, it is, therefore, unconstitutional."

"It is most unsatisfactory to have to ground a decision upon so technical a point, but such as it is, this decision disposes to the case." * * *

Baptist Missionary Society.

The regular monthly meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary society was held at the church on Tuesday afternoon, October 13, with quite a number of members present.

The subject for the afternoon's study was "Foreign mission survey," "The message of the hour," showing that missionary work is still going on in foreign fields in spite of the war, was read by Mrs. Harry Murphy.

Mrs. W. R. McMillan told of "Some beneficial results in foreign fields," and "A challenge to America," was read by Mrs. S. H. Counts.

The president, Mrs. R. M. Hitt, then made an interesting talk on our work in foreign fields, stressing the need of our sending at the close of the war more missionaries to foreign fields than ever before, while their hearts may be more susceptible to our teachings.

A splendid report of the annual association meeting at Blackville on September 23rd and 24th was made by Mrs. J. E. Newsom, who attended that meeting as a delegate. The association accepted the invitation to hold their meeting at Bamberg next fall and we will look forward to its coming with pleasure.

Miss Annie Hartzog was appointed delegate to the State meeting in Spartanburg on November 9th to 12th, with Mrs. J. E. Newsom as alternate.

Plans were discussed for having in the society a mission study class and a committee was also appointed to get up a year book for next year and have copies published.

The treasurer's report showed that all apportionments for last year had been paid in full, also $30.00 sent to Connie Maxwell orphanage, for clothing a little girl there, whom the society has pledged to support. The meeting was concluded with prayer. —Contributed.

Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Johns Coming.

All the ladies of the Baptist church are cordially invited to come to the church Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to hear Mrs. W. O. Rice, the superintendent of the Barnwell division W. M. U. She has a great many things to say, especially to the members of the missionary society. Mrs. W. I. Johns will also be here to address the mothers. It is earnestly hoped that the ladies will lay aside everything and attend this meeting, as it will be a meeting of information and inspiration.
